Camp Overview: This two week long musical theatre camp is your child's ticket to an exciting summer of fun! Students will explore the techniques of musical theatre performance from the perspectives of actors, singers and dancers. The workshop employs both group and individual instruction, and activities include dance classes, choreography and musical staging rehearsals, acting and song analysis, song coaching, improvisation exercises and a series of master classes by professionals from Point Park, Carnegie Mellon, Pittsburgh Public and the Pittsburgh CLO. The summer camp culminates with a showcase on Friday, July 28th. We encourage all friends and family to attend the showcase event!

The Norwin High School Theatre Company's mission is to provide students with the opportunity to practice the 21st Century Skills of communication and creativity in a real-world setting. Through performance and practice, we will encourage students to celebrate their individual talents, build their self-confidence and inspire their dreams!
